Forecast for Friday 12 May 2023

Weather: Low cloud and patchy drizzle in the east overnight and into the morning gradually breaking up to allow some afternoon sunshine. Towards the west coast sunny spells through the day. Later some low cloud may drift in to Atlantic coasts but will be shallow and not reach far up the hills of Skye and Lochalsh.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 30% in the morning in the east otherwise more than 90%.

Low cloud and visibility: Areas of low cloud 400-800m in the east gradually lifting off the hills, otherwise any cloud above summits with good visibility underneath.
